YOU

Join a cross-sector group to lead & inspire
a Restorative workplace culture

- The Restorative Leadership Programme uses Restorative Practice to develop people's promotion & career potential
- It is an accredited ILM Level 3 qualification: six days of experiential learning spread across 3 months while you carry out a workplace project
- Individuals from over 50 organisations have used the programme to inspire, motivate & build morale in their workplaces despite the setbacks of covid-19
- 100% of participants said the course improved their Restorative coaching and Restorative team work skills
- So far, in 3 years, 12 cohorts of education & health professionals who gained this qualification have gone on to impact the lives of over 17,000 children & young people
